Points System

 - ii. Other exceptions are included in the previous rule under Membership. Please see rule "h" for more clarification.
 - iii. Once a hog is shown by one exhibitor, it may not be shown for point's accumulation by another.
 - iv. If you do not want to receive points for a pig, please clarify on the show entry form.
- d. If a judge is unable to show up to a show due to an accident or medical emergency and cancels within 24 hours, the points for said show won't apply to the series for that season, at the board's discretion.

If an exhibitor is unable to present registration papers in the FJSC member's name with matching ear notches on a pig that places in the top of its given breed, then the exhibitor will be stripped of any accumulated points during that show. Furthermore the exhibitor must have all purebreds registration papers verified prior to entering the ring at all remaining FJSC shows by the assigned FJSC board member.
- e. If any member falsifies Purebred verification, this will result in a one year suspension from showing at any FJSC sanctioned show.
- f. Registration Papers should be submitted on Showman.app.
- g. A purebred hog that is not in a member's name may be shown, however, it will not accumulate points for that exhibitor. Please make note of this on the entry form.

Purebred Breeding Gilt Eligibility

All purebred breeding gilts must meet breed eligibility requirements set forth by the National Swine Registry, American Berkshire Association, and Team Purebred.

If there is a dispute about a given hog, a written grievance may be filed with the FJSC, with the accompanying $50 fee. Upon written protest, the breed eligibility requirement of the subject animal will be evaluated by the FJSC board to confirm or deny breed eligibility.

If it is determined the subject animal does not meet breed eligibility the exhibitor has the option to continue to exhibit the animal in the market division. If determined the animal does not meet breed eligibility for the market division, then the animal will be shown in the crossbred divisions.

At the time of protest any points accumulated by the exhibitor with the subject animal will remain in the division the animal was originally shown. POINTS WILL NOT BE TRANSFERRED TO MARKET OR CROSS DIVISIONS.
